Sri Lanka Touch

This document traces the History of the Sri Lanka Touch Football Association foray into International Competition.

In 1919 Sri Lanka became a Member of the Federation, and in December of that year Ayo Abeyaratne, of Sri Lanka Touch Association, attended the FIT Member Workshop in Paris, stating his association is pursuing "a bottom-up approach" to growing Touch in the cricket-obsessed country.

He went on to say they will be approaching schools and rugby academies to grow the game and ensure they are sustainable long-term. By starting in the schools, they will provide Sri Lankan children access to the same pathways offered by cricket and rugby.

As one of the Federation's newest member Sri Lanka plans to collaborate closely with Touch Rugby Federation of India, Pakistan and the Philippines and are looking forward to attending the Asian Touch Cup in Shanghai, China in 2020

In October 2023 Sri Lanka joined with Lebanon and Greece for a "friendly" test series in Milperia, New South Wales
