

UNITED ARAB EMIRATES

INTERNATIONAL RESULTS

In the UAE, organised, structured touch rugby is still very much in its infancy. For many years expatriates would gather once a week at a particular park and have a game of touch. In November 2004 the first regular touch module was held with 14 teams taking part. It proved to be a huge success.

The competition rolled over to 2005 and thus the Dubai Touch League was born. As a climax to their season, an international 3 match mixed-team series was played against neighbouring Qatar. It proved to be such great success that an Arabian Gulf Championship involving the UAE, Qatar, Bahrain and Saudi Arabia was scheduled in for April 2006.

However on 8th January 2006 John Mamea-Wilson saw an opportunity to join the International Touch community and applied for membership to the Federation of International Touch. Unfortunately until they could demonstrate to the Government they were a fully structured organisation, support for the application could not be obtained.

Under the leadership of Michael Montgomerie they were invited to the 2006 European Championships where they performed quite exceptionally for a brand new touch nation.

Now under the direction of John Larkins (and due to Government regulations) the UAE teams played under the Middle East Banner at the 2015 World Cup and 2016 European Championships
