RESULTS

Touch has been played in various formats in the Czech Republic since the early 2000's mainly driven by a patriotic Kiwi, Matt East. Along with Sarah McAulay, Renaud Carbonnel and Paul Monteiro they have developed the structures and growth of the sport to its present day standards in both Junior and Adult competitions

There are more than 10 schools and clubs from around the country that currently compete in the Czech Junior Touch program. Current age divisions include both U10 & U13, with planned expansion to include U15 and potentially more divisions.

The adult program is based in Prague and for those who want a more serious and competitive edge the Prague Elite training squad are a feeder group into the Prague Pillagers (2016 Central Europe Touch Champions).

2017 saw the Mixed 15 years team compete at the Europe Junior Championships in Dublin, Ireland and then again in 2018 and 2019 with a Mixed 18 years team joining them in the latter two years
