RESULTS

Touch on a competitive basis, started in Hong Kong in 1988 in the form of a summer tournament. In August 2002 Ray Ng from the Hong Kong Touch & Tag Rugby Association contacted the Federation applying for Membership. Along with Don Jurries they prepared an application to be admitted to the International Organisation.

Ray along with Brenton Coombs and others saw that on the 10th March 2003 Hong Kong become the 29th member of the Federation and with the assistance of Gabriel Lee; Shun Lam; Ben Worthington and Ruth Mitchell they took the Association to the next level of Development.

During this time the Regional Development Officer for Asia Mr Bryan O'Conner ably assisted Hong Kong with the Coaching, Refereeing and Technical resources needed to future growth and expansion. In 2005 Ian Stanley the Australians Mens Open Coach was approached by the HKTA to conduct Coaching Programs in the country. In September 2005 Phil Dawson from Australia arrived to conduct meeting and coaching clinic with local players.

Late in 2005 Pauline Cheung took control and began regular communication with The Federation and Regional administration particularly in respect of coaching course, selection and refereeing policies. One of her early achievements was the first Hong Kong Inter-cities Touch Championship on 29th April 2006.
