

In 1979 Cary is "running a line" for the Referees in the Manly Warringah Mens Open Final

In 1986 Cary receives his Life Membership Jacket from Manly Warringah President Lindsay Campbell

In 1990 Cary coached the Region Nine (now part of Sydney Scorpions) at the NSW Regional Championships

In the early 90's the NSW Referee Grading Night attracted a large group of Many Referees

Many Warringah Touring Teams had a reputation of winning Knock Out competitions especially those conducted in the ACT. Cary Thompson was the original Laughing Cavalier

Cary Thompson with the Ex-NSW Public Service Team at the 1992 State Cup in Port Macquarie

In 2002 Cary is holding the European Championship Trophy at Millennium Stadium Cardiff after Wales hosted the fourth European Championship

In 2004 Cary presented Rick Borg with his Hall of Fame plaque

In 2004 Cary presented Peter McNeven and Peter Bell with their Hall of Fame Plaques

In 2005 Cary was asked to address the gathering following the opening of Samoa's Parliament by the Prime Minister Tuilaepa Lupesoliai Neioti Aiono Sailele Malielegaoi

Cary collating the Results and conducting the South Pacific Championship in Apia in 2005

In 2007 Cary and Bill Ker collated the results and score at the sixth World Cup in Stellenbosch, South Africa

In 2007 Cary presents Stephen Pike with his Hall of Fame Awards at the NSW Blues Dinner

In 2008 Cary is conducting the seventh European Championships in the office of the Secretary of the Massey Football Club in Paris

In 2010 Cary was the Manager of the Mens 40 Australian Test team that played a Trans-Tasman series in Townsville.

Then in 2011 he managed the Mens 40 Team at the World Cup in Edinburgh, Scotland

In 2013 Cary presented referees with awards at the NSW Referees Grading Night.

In 2014 Cary presented awards at the NSW Blues Awards Evening

In 2000 Cary received The Sports Australia Award from the Australian Government

In 2015 Cary received Life Membership from the Federation of International Touch

In 2015 Cary Thompson led the March Past (and Referee contingent) into Coffs Harbour International Stadium for the commencement of the 8th Federation of International Touch World Cup

In December 2018 Touch Football Australia announced at the Golden Jubilee Dinner the best Opens Teams of the past 50 Years. Here Cary congratulates Gavin Shuker for his selection in the Mens team

In December 2018 Touch Football Australia announced at the Golden Jubilee Dinner the best Opens Teams of the past 50 Years. Here Cary congratulates Maria Arthur for her selection in the Womens team

In December 2018 Touch Football Australia announced at the Golden Jubilee Dinner the best Opens Teams of the past 50 Years. Here Cary congratulates Dean Russell for his selection in the Mixed team